HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, THURSDAY, May 29, 1823.

Opening of the Wheels.

Conformably to the accustomed punctuality in the Baltimore lotteries, the drawing of the GRAND STATE LOTTERY commenced yesterday agreeably to announcement, and we have much pleasure in noticing thus early, the usual good fortune attendant on investments at COHEN'S OFFICE. Our official list of the drawing is published on the next page; amongst the prizes drawn, were Nos. 21157 and 23413, of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS each—the former was sold in a whole ticket at COHEN'S OFFICE, and is owned by an adventurer residing in the State of Massachusetts—the latter is held also in a whole ticket, and in this City—the only Hundred dollar prize which came out, was to No. 11741, this, we also had the pleasure of sending to a distant adventurer (in the State of Georgia.) Thus have we commenced, as usual, the distribution of Fortune's Favors amongst our customers, and we anticipate the pleasure of announcing also, the splendid capitals of the scheme.

The drawing will be continued on Thursday after next, the 12th June. Tickets will soon rise—present price only Twelve dollars, and shares in proportion.

The Monument Lottery.

The drawing of this brilliant scheme will be continued on Wednesday Next, when some of the numerous FLOATING CAPITALS may be expected out. The state of the wheel (which is very interesting,) will be found on our 4th page. Tickets only Ten dollars, and shares in proportion, as usual.

The Lottery Gazette & Register

Containing the drawings both of the Grand State and Monument lotteries, is regularly forwarded to our correspondents, and also to such of our customers, who requested to be furnished with it.—Should any of them at any time, not reach their destination, by informing us of the failure, we will immediately send on a duplicate.

DISASTROUS INTELLIGENCE.—By the ship Douglass, Capt. Brown, arrived at New-York from Curracoa, disagreeable intelligence is received respecting the Colombian squadron, which has been captured by allowing itself to fall in with a heavy Spanish fleet, under English colours; and, after a sanguinary action was taken. The gallant Commodore Daniels, a native of the United States, fought his vessel until he had not a shot in his locker, and she was sinking, with his flag nailed to the mast.

The Spanish force consisted of the

Diamanta,	44 guns	400 men
Cassirda,	54	630
Hyena,	18	197
Ceres,	40	387
Constitution, (schr.)	14	90
Jacinta,	16	100
	186	1804

Colombian force captured—

Bolivar, Com. Daniels	24 guns	150 men
Mosquito,	18	120
Sapphire,	18	110
Maria Francisca,	22	93
	82	478

Killed and wounded, according to report.

Spaniards,	88 killed,	49 wounded.
Colombians,	161	21

POSTSCRIPT.—We learn from undoubted authority, says the New York Mercantile Advertiser, that the ship BOLIVAR was not in the engagement off Porto Cavello of the 30th ult. she being at the time off Curracoa. The only Columbian vessels engaged, were the Maria Francisca and Caraboba, which fought the two frigates desperately. No account of killed or wounded on either side has been received that is entitled to credit.

We therefore wait anxiously for the next arrival which may give a correct detail of the engagement.

NEW YORK RACES.—The great races at New-York commenced on Monday last. The arrangements for the week, viz:

First day—Sweepstakes for three year olds, to carry 98lb. mile heats, 100 dollars entrance, half forfeit; with twenty-five dollars for each colt or filly that starts, added by the association—to close on the first of June.

Second day—The great match race. On this day the New-York horse Eclipse is to run against any other which may be named, for 40,000 dollars—20,000 dolls. aside, four mile heats. The horse that has been matched against the fleet courser of the North has not been publicly named. The famous Virginia horses Henry, Betsey Richards, and Childers are in readiness near the ground. There will be a greater display of fine horses upon the course than was ever before assembled in this country.

Third day—4 mile heats, for a purse of $1,000.

Fourth day—3 mile heats, for a purse of $600.

Fifth day—2 mile heats, for a purse of $300.

An immense influx of strangers from various parts of the Union had arrived at New-York to be present at the sports.—The New-York American of Saturday, says—The stakes of $20,000 a side, for the match race, were this day deposited in the Branch Bank. The hour of starting on each day will be one o'clock, punctually.—Arrangements have been made for the benefit of those, who, not being able to go to the great race of Tuesday, feel nevertheless much interest in the result to communicate the same without delay to the city. If Eclipse win, a white flag will be hoisted at the Liberty pole Brooklyn; if he lose, a pendant will be hoisted over a white flag.

The National Advocate contains the following humorous article:

Clear the Course!!—Our Races will make more noise than New Market or Epsom, and Eclipse excites more interest than the famous filly Moses, belonging to our friend the Duke of York. Strangers are pouring in from all quarters. We have white hats and sallow faces from the south; rosy cheeks and cunning phizzes from the east; Johnny raws from the north; and a few of the knowing ones from the west; current and uncurrent money quite plenty; race course crowded each day; twenty horses training, and every effort made to beat Eclipse.

It is impossible to say how the thing will go. The southerners are full of money, and ready to bet any sum against Eclipse; the north is also ready to pony up any thing in behalf of their favorite sorrel. Much speculation and jockeying on the tapis. Our Wall-street Brokers wont touch the stock. Harry Sprightful has a cool $500 on Eclipse; ditto Bobby Careless; ditto Jack Humdrum; Tom Tick $2,000; ditto Baron Nabem; ditto the Hon. Jack Shuffle; $1,500 Captain Snacks; $1,500 Billy Wagtail, together with a thousand minor bets of hats, coats, boots, et cetera. These offers have been promptly backed by the knowing ones of the Pedee, the Santee, the Waccamaw, and the Roanoke, who are all on the ground with their little negers, and appear to be up to a thing or two.

In the mean time nothing is heard but the races.

Frank Sportive has a new Barouche; Tommy Smashem a new Gig and tandem—lots of crop tail ponies are ready, and we are threatened with six entire new carriages, brass furniture, yellow panels, new liveries, spanking greys, lace veils, full purses, silk parasols, Leghorn flats—"that's your sort," as Goldfinch says. All is bustle and preparation.—"Will you dine with me Monday, Bob?"—"What me? ho, O dear, O Lord, ho, ha, I'am engaged three days, dine on the race course, ho! ho! ha! ha! pray ma'am, shall we make up our little pic nic to Orange springs on Monday or Tuesday?"—"Dear me, you forget sir—we go to the races,—O beg pardon." Carman, fetch me a load of nut wood, on Tuesday—"Can't sir—must have it now. I'm going to go to the races, on Tuesday; Long Island against sweet potatoes forever." "Hear you sweepy, my chimblies wants sweeping, come Tuesday,"—"Cant Massa, I go to de races—we all walk dere—got six shillings to bet on Clipse."

In the mean time all is active preparation on that famous course. Booths erecting, flags flying, pigs roasting, fiddlers tuning, and all dust and confusion.

Domestic Intelligence

The times at Washington City.—The general pressure on the country requires no illustration. It is one of those plain subjects which come home to every man's bosom and business. In order, however, that our distant readers may be able to form some correct estimate of the pecuniary state of this district, from a fact which speaks louder than a column of commentary, we state for their information that the new and excellent block of 3 story brick buildings, which contains the tavern of Mr. O'Neale, and the office of this paper, as well as a third dwelling house of uniform size and appearance, was sold yesterday for only $6800. The Metropolis Bank, at whose suit, execution had been levied, was the purchaser of the property, which cost its proprietor $49,000, and which, as we understand, was subjected to this forced sale, in consequence of the failure of persons for whom Mr. O'Neale had become an endorser to the Bank.—Washington Repub.

Harvard College.—The late rebellion in Harvard College, which caused the dismissal of about 50 members of the senior class, it appears arose from the violent excesses committed by the larger part of that class, in pursuing their resentment towards an individual class-mate. It is denied in the Boston papers, that the difficulty will very seriously effect the annual commencement.

Waverly Novel—Messrs. Carey & Lea of Philadelphia have received nearly the whole of Quentin Durward, the new novel, by the author of Waverly, and expect to publish the work complete, in about a fortnight.

An attempt was recently made to burn the Post Office at Canonsburgh, Washington county, Penn. Powder inclosed in paper and tow was thrust into the letter box, and a train of tow from that to the outside was set on fire. Providentially, no injury was done, except burning away part of the wood round the hole.

THE GREAT RACE. The Eastern mail arrived at 3 o'clock this morning. The following was endorsed on the way bill:—"Eclipse Victorious, 1st heat, Henry beat—3d heat, Eclipse half a length ahead—3d heat, Eclipse four lengths ahead.

COHEN'SLottery and Exchange Office,

No. 114, Market-street, Baltimore;—where the Great Capitals of 40,000 dolls. 30,000 dolls. 20,000 dolls. 5,000 dolls. &c. &c. were sold in the last Lotteries, and where MORE Capital Prizes have been sold than at any other Office in America.

Baltimore, May 29, 1823.

CASH ON DEMAND

will be paid for all Prizes which may be sold at

COHEN'S OFFICE,

in either of the two Brilliant Schemes of the Grand State Lottery

AND

Monument Lottery.

The following are the rich capitals contained in the two schemes, both which are now drawing in the City of Baltimore:

1 Capital prize of $100,000
2 Capital prizes of 20,000
4 Capital prizes of 10,000
4 Capital prizes of 5,000
3 Capital prizes of 2,000
27 Capital prizes of 1,000

&c. &c. the whole amounting to upwards of

360,000 Dollars.Halves, Quarters and Eighths.

The demand for Share-Tickets in the GRAND STATE LOTTERY continues unprecedented.—They are issued at COHEN'S OFFICE, by authority of the ACT OF ASSEMBLY. The advantage to the adventurer in purchasing Shares, is in the increased number of chances obtained for the same amount of money which would otherwise be invested in a whole Ticket—and when we consider the great amount of the Capital Prize of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS in the Grand State Lottery, we are not surprised at the demand for the Shares, as an HALF TICKET, which costs only six dollars, may produce FIFTY THOUSAND—A QUARTER Ticket, which costs only three dollars, may produce TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND—and an EIGHTH Ticket, which costs but the trifling sum of one dollar and fifty cents, may produce to the adventurer no less than TWELVE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS!

Orders from any part of the United States, by mail (post paid) or by private conveyance, enclosing the cash, or prizes in any of the Baltimore Lotteries, will meet the same prompt and punctual attention, as if on personal application, addressed to

J. I. COHEN, Jr.—Baltimore.

The Official Lists of the Drawings of the GRAND STATE and MONUMENT LOTTERIES are both published in this paper, and will be forwarded, gratis, to all those who purchase their tickets at COHEN'S OFFICE.

The Notes of any of the Banks in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina or Georgia, and also of all specie-paying Banks in Maryland, New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio, will be received at COHEN'S OFFICE, at par, in payment for either Tickets or Shares in the Grand State or Monument Lotteries.—The notes of the Bank of the United States and Branches will also be received par.
